

An exciting new book of Scripture reflections
for couples

Easy order details overleaf

A book that aids LISTENING to God and each other through reflections on the BIBLE

From the couples and priest who put together the successful booklet on Marriage: TWO IN ONE FLESH

This book, focusing on the question: what are these Readings, saying to me or us about our relationship, offers those who believe in the power of prayer and the Word of God, a blessed resource that can speak right into the heart of their love for one another!

Bishop John Hine, responsible for Marriage & Family Life on Bishops Conference of England & Wales: I am more than happy to recommend this book which will be a most helpful resource to couples who are looking for a way to strengthen their relationship as husband and wife.... [it could] help them to focus the light of God's Word on their relationship and help them to see the "extraordinary in the ordinary".

Geoff & Gina Poulter, Directors of the Catholic Bible School: A truly wonderful and deeply thought provoking book that will be an excellent tool for those couples who pray together and want to link into the Sunday readings of the Catholic Church. Written and compiled by couples for couples...couples who obviously "practice what they preach". Highly recommended; after all as it is said "those who pray together - stay together".

Tony Castle, Christian Author:

"I Am With You" is definitely a worthwhile publication. It is theologically and scripturally sound...[and] should do great good.
