Inspection Judgements

The extent to which the pupils contribute to and benefit from the Catholic Life of the school.

- The extent to which the pupils contribute to and benefit from the Catholic Life of the school is outstanding.
- Pupils know and understand the school's Mission Statement; We are God's work of art. They understand the part they play within it and are fully involved in its evaluation. Each year the pupils take part in a Mission Day to reaffirm and show how they will live their mission throughout the school year.
- The Mission Statement is celebrated each year, for example, through display, collective worship and a Mission Statement book containing children's photography.
- Pupil's behaviour is exemplary; they know right and wrong and apply this in their personal relationships. They lead by example and show responsibility for themselves and their actions. They are quick to congratulate, respect and above all show love to one another.
- All pupils are actively involved in developing the Catholic character of the school and embrace opportunities to meet their potential in all aspects of school life.
 - They are encouraged to take on roles of responsibility in the school, e.g. through the school council, as prefects, house captains, digital leaders and buddies.
 - Pupils and their families show responsibility and care to their local community. For example, by donating toys for the Nugent Care collection in Advent and donating food for the South Sefton Food Bank. Each year pupils take part in a Smile Challenge and spend time with those less fortunate in the local community.
 - The Year of Mercy was an example of how pupils and their families care for their local community by providing food and caring for the homeless in Liverpool.
 - Pupils are fully supported by their parish priest. Pupils take active roles in a wide range of Masses and celebrations including attending a weekly parish mass.
 - Regular fundraising at school serves the wider and global communities, such as, CAFOD, Macmillan, the Royal British Legion and Children In Need.
 - Pupils enjoy and benefit from participation in many educational day trips and residential school activity trips at Crosby Hall and Colomendy in Wales.
 - Older pupils attend a retreat day at Savio Salesian College where pupils are invited to take part in a variety of activities.
 - Education for pastoral care and personal relationships fosters positive attitudes in pupils. Pupils and their families are offered care and support where there is need by the school and are supported by outside agencies.
 - The school praises and acknowledges the contribution of others, evident in their award assemblies. Pupils enjoy certificates for their improving class work and are awarded a leaf placed on the schools' Success Tree, displaying how they have actively lived out their mission statement.
- Pupils show a readiness to embrace, celebrate and share their lived experiences.
